Tips for submitting Class News

For your convenience, www.culver.org/alumni is the preferred method for updating your personal records at Culver, as well as sharing class news, address changes, and death notices.

Email is acceptable, as well; the address is alumni@culver.org. The mailing address is Alumni Office, 1300 Academy Road #132, Culver, Ind. 46511-1291.

As you submit your class news, please keep the following guidelines in mind:

- Avoid the use of abbreviations, acronyms, and other professional jargon that other readers may not be familiar with or understand.
- Culver Alumni Magazine publishes information on new jobs, promotions, awards and honors, interesting events in your life, relocations, marriages, births, and deaths. The magazine does not publish engagement or birth announcements. The magazine does not publish photographs of newborns. Photos of wedding parties must meet certain criteria.
- The magazine does not publish street addresses, telephone numbers, or e-mail addresses. However, this information should always be included in any correspondence for the purpose of maintaining up-to-date alumni records.
